SECTION 5 – CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(c) Visteon Corporation (the “Company”) announced today the election of William M. Robertson as its interim Chief Financial Officer effective March 31, 2016. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. Mr. Robertson will serve as interim Chief Financial Officer until his successor is chosen and qualified, or until his earlier resignation or removal. The Board of Directors of the Company is in the process of conducting a search for Chief Financial Officer and will name Mr. Robertson’s successor at the completion of the search. Mr. Robertson will replace Jeffrey M. Stafeil, who, as previously disclosed, will leave the Company effective as of March 31, 2016. Mr. Robertson will act as the Company’s principal financial officer during the time that he is serving as interim Chief Financial Officer.

Mr. Robertson, 54, currently serves as Vice President and Corporate Controller of the Company. He has served in this position since June 2015 and he will continue to serve in this position while serving as the interim Chief Financial Officer. Prior to June 2015, Mr. Robertson was Director, Corporate Finance since 2003; Manager, Corporate Finance since April 2001; and Operations Manager since joining the Company in May, 2000. Before joining the Company, he served as Vehicle Operations Controller for Ford Motor Company. Mr. Robertson will continue under his existing compensation arrangement without change.

There is no arrangement or understanding between Mr. Robertson and any other person pursuant to which he was selected as an officer of the Company and there are no family relationships between Mr. Robertson and any of the Company’s directors or executive officers. There are no transactions to which the Company is a party and in which Mr. Robertson has a direct or indirect material interest that would be required to be disclosed under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

NEWS RELEASE*Visteon Names William M. Robertson Interim Chief Financial Officer

VAN BUREN TOWNSHIP, Mich., March 31, 2016 – Visteon Corporation (NYSE: VC) announced today that William M. Robertson, currently the company's vice president and corporate controller, will serve as chief financial officer on an interim basis, effective March 31, 2016, until a permanent replacement is named.

As announced in January, Jeff Stafeil, who has served as executive vice president and chief financial officer since October 2012, is leaving the company to pursue other opportunities. Visteon's board of directors is in the process of conducting a search for a permanent chief financial officer.

Robertson, 54, who has been with Visteon since 2000, will continue as corporate controller while serving as interim chief financial officer. His previous positions have included director, corporate finance, a role he held for 12 years; manager, corporate finance; and operations manager. Before joining Visteon, Robertson served as vehicle operations controller for Ford Motor Co.

"Bill is a very knowledgeable and experienced financial leader with a long-term track record of success at the company," said Visteon President and CEO Sachin Lawande. "We are fortunate to have an individual of his caliber serving as interim chief financial officer during the search for a permanent successor."
