This filing does not reflect securities, if any, beneficially owned by any operating units of GSG whose ownership of securities is disaggregated from that of the Goldman Sachs Reporting Units in accordance with the Release. The Goldman Sachs Reporting Units disclaim beneficial ownership of the securities beneficially owned by (i) any client accounts with respect to which the Goldman Sachs Reporting Units or their employees have voting or investment discretion, or both, and (ii) certain investment entities of which the Goldman Sachs Reporting Units acts as the general partner, managing general partner or other manager, to the extent interests in such entities are held by persons other than the Goldman Sachs Reporting Units.

Upon entering into the Third Amendment to the Equity Commitment Agreement, the Reporting Persons, the other Investors, and the Additional Purchasers may be deemed to be a “group” pursuant to Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act. The Reporting Persons do not expressly affirm membership in a group with any of the Investors or Additional Purchasers, and disclaim beneficial ownership of any Common Stock held by the Investors (other than the Reporting Persons) or Additional Purchasers. Neither the filing of this Schedule 13D nor any of its contents shall be deemed to constitute an admission that the Reporting Persons or any of their respective affiliates are the beneficial owners of any Common Stock beneficially owned by any of the Investors (other than the Reporting Persons) or Additional Purchasers for purposes of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act, the rules promulgated thereunder or for any other purpose.

Purchasers to fulfill their obligations under this Section 7.16) and (y) not object to confirmation of the Plan, otherwise commence or support any proceeding opposing any of the terms of the Plan, or take any other action (directly or indirectly) that in any way prevents, delays, or impedes the restructuring of the Company as contemplated by the Plan (including in connection with the Claims Conversion Sub-Plan); provided that each Additional Purchaser, including each of its Affiliates, shall support (directly and indirectly) confirmation of the Plan and shall not take any action to oppose the date of, or seek to reschedule, the Confirmation Hearing currently set by the Bankruptcy Court on August 31, 2010, which Confirmation Hearing is premised on all Classes of unsecured claims and Class J (each, as defined in the Plan) voting to accept the Plan; provided, further, that the Additional Purchasers, including their respective Affiliates, shall be permitted to object to confirmation of the Plan, and may change their votes to rejecting votes (and the Debtors and Investors expressly agree not to contest or oppose such change of votes), solely in the case of a Sustained Objection. In the case of a Sustained Objection prior to or on August 31, 2010, no Additional Purchaser, nor any of its Affiliates, shall take any action to oppose the date of, or seek to reschedule, the alternate Confirmation Hearing (the “Alternate Confirmation Hearing”) currently set by the Bankruptcy Court on September 28, 2010, which Alternate Confirmation Hearing is premised on a Class of unsecured Claims or Class J (each, as defined in the Plan) voting to reject the Plan; provided that, if a Sustained Objection occurs after August 31, 2010, the earliest date on which the Debtors shall seek to commence the Alternate Confirmation Hearing shall be thirty (30) days following the occurrence of the Sustained Objection, and each Additional Purchaser, and each of its Affiliates, shall actively support, and take no action to oppose, such commencement of the Alternate Confirmation Hearing as early as the thirtieth (30th) day following the occurrence of the Sustained Objection. Further, as of the date of the Third Amendment, each Additional Purchaser, including its respective Affiliates, will (a) withdraw, with prejudice, its appeal of the Order Authorizing the Debtors to Enter Into: (A) a Plan Support Agreement; (B) an Equity Commitment Agreement and to Pay Certain Fees in Connection Therewith; and (C) a Cash Recovery Backstop Agreement, dated June 17, 2010 [Docket No. 3427], including any motions to expedite the same (the “Appeal”); (b) withdraw with prejudice all discovery demands with regard to the Plan (including, without limitation, all interrogatories, requests to admit, requests for production of documents, notices of depositions, and all subpoenas and motions with respect to the same (collectively, “Discovery.”)), and seek no further Discovery with respect to any party in the Proceedings, it being understood that, notwithstanding the withdrawal with prejudice, each Additional Purchaser, including its respective Affiliates, may reinitiate the Appeal and its Discovery following the occurrence of a Sustained Objection, it being further understood that if any Additional Purchaser, or any of its Affiliates, reinitiates the Appeal or objects to the Plan or changes its votes, the Additional Purchasers, including their respective Affiliates, shall be deemed to have relinquished their right to participate in the Additional Purchaser Commitment and their right to reimbursement for Additional Purchaser Expenses; and (c) at the request of the Company, and with the Company’s reimbursement of the reasonable, actual and documented fees and expenses (including reasonable, actual and documented attorneys’ fees) of the Additional Purchasers related thereto, provide affirmative support of the Plan at any confirmation trial by filing a pleading and orally specifically stating the Additional Purchasers’ affirmative support of the Plan, which request shall not be made in the case of a Sustained Objection. The Company and the Investors further agree to withdraw with prejudice all Discovery served against any Additional Purchasers or their advisors, it being understood that, notwithstanding the withdrawal with prejudice, the Company and the Investors may reinitiate such Discovery in the case of a Sustained Objection, it being understood that the Additional Purchasers can object to such Discovery. To the extent that any Person formally or informally, or the Bankruptcy Court sua sponte, objects to the Third Amendment or the Plan for any reason, no Additional Purchaser, nor any of their respective Affiliates, shall be, or shall be deemed to have been, released from its obligations pursuant to this Section 7.16 and the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to affirmatively support opposition to any such objection and the Investors shall not support any such objection; provided, to the extent that any Person's objection, or the Bankruptcy Court's sua sponte objection, to the Third Amendment is sustained only in connection with the payment of Additional Purchaser Expenses pursuant to Section 4.3(d), the Debtors shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to support, and the Investors shall not oppose, a section 503(b)(3)(D) substantial contribution request filed by the Additional Purchasers for the payment of Additional Purchaser Expenses pursuant to and subject to the conditions and limitations of Section 4.3(d), which, for the avoidance of doubt, will not include the payment of any fees or expenses in excess of the limitations on the amount of Additional Purchaser Expenses payable thereunder. Additionally, each Additional Purchaser agrees to comply with the terms of Sections 2.2 and 2.3 of the Plan Support Agreement as if such terms were incorporated herein mutatis mutandis, as if such Additional Purchaser were a Consenting Senior Noteholder thereunder and as if all references to "Relevant Claims" in Section 2.2 of the Plan Support Agreement included "Relevant Interests" (as such term is defined in the Plan Support Agreement). Other than as a result of a Sustained Objection, in the event of any amendment, supplement, change, or modification of the Plan, on file with the Bankruptcy Court as of August 6, 2010, that results in a material adverse change or modification to the treatment of Class J Interests (as defined in the Plan) under the Plan that requires re-solicitation under section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3019 or the rights and privileges of the Additional Purchasers under this Agreement (which rights and privileges are qualified by the terms of this Agreement), the Additional Purchasers shall have no further obligations or responsibilities under this Agreement, including, without limitation, Section 3.1 and Section 7.16, unless the Additional Purchasers provide their prior written consent."

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, a reduction and reallocation of an Over-Allotted Investor’s Allotted Portion of the Equity Commitment (and revision of Schedule 1 to reflect such reduction and reallocation) or, as the case may be, an Additional Purchaser’s Additional Purchaser Shares (and revision of Schedule 7 to reflect such reduction and reallocation) pursuant to a Regulatory Reallocation in accordance with this Section 8.5 shall not require the consent of such Over-Allotted Investor or Additional Purchaser.”

SCHEDULE II

In May 2006, the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") alleged that fourteen investment banking firms, including Goldman, Sachs & Co. ("Goldman Sachs"), violated Section 17(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, by engaging in one or more practices relating to auctions of auction rate securities during the period from January 1, 2003 through June 30, 2004 as described in the cease-and-desist order entered by the SEC. Goldman Sachs has agreed to provide certain disclosures about its material auction practices and procedures to auction participants and to certify to the SEC that it has implemented certain procedures relating to the auction process. As part of a multi-firm settlement, Goldman Sachs submitted an Offer of Settlement which was accepted by the SEC on May 31, 2006. Without admitting or denying the allegations, Goldman Sachs consented to a censure and cease-and-desist order and payment of $1,500,000 civil money penalty.

On July 15, 2010, Goldman Sachs agreed with the SEC to settle the SEC's pending case against Goldman Sachs relating to disclosures in the ABACUS 2007-AC1 CDO offering. Goldman Sachs consented to the entry of a final judgment by the court, which has approved the settlement, providing for the payment of penalties and disgorgement totaling $550 million, Goldman Sachs's implementation of certain remedial measures focused on offerings of mortgage-related securities and an injunction against violating Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 in the offer or sale of any security. The conduct of Goldman Sachs alleged in the SEC's complaint involved an offering of a synthetic collateralized debt obligation, which referenced a portfolio of synthetic residential mortgage-backed securities, by Goldman Sachs or its affiliates to qualified institutional buyers in reliance on the exemption from registration under the Securities Act of 1933 provided by Rule 144A and to non-U.S. persons in reliance on the safe harbor from registration provided by Regulation S. Specifically, the complaint alleged that the offering materials, in describing the Portfolio Selection Agent for the portfolio of synthetic residential mortgage-backed securities, should have disclosed that the hedge fund assuming the short side of the transaction had played a role in the selection process. In its consent to the judgment, Goldman Sachs acknowledged that it was a mistake not to disclose the role of the hedge fund.
